Who we are

Who is providing this notice? Kingsview Partners, LLC

What we do

How does Kingsview Partners protect my personal information? To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. Kingsview Partners:

- takes precautions to protect your information by implementing physical, electronic, and procedural safeguards; and
- uses security controls, including encryption, threat protection, and limits access to your information.

How does Kingsview Partners collect my personal information? We collect your personal information, for example, when you:

- Provide account information or give us your contact information;
- Pay your bills;
- Use your debit card;
- Give us your income information;
- Provide employment information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, prior owners of your account, our affiliates or subsidiaries, government agencies, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing? Federal law gives you the right to limit only:

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes—information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

NOTICE OF INFORMATION PRACTICES

For residents of Arizona, California, Connecticut, Georgia, Illinois, Maine, Massachusetts, Minnesota, Montana, New Jersey, Nevada, North Carolina, Ohio, Oregon, and Virginia. These states require insurers and agents to describe their information practices in addition to providing a Privacy Notice. The two notices are very similar, but in general our information practices include the following: Kingsview Partners may obtain information about you and any other persons applying for insurance. Some of this information will come from you and some may come from other sources. That information and any other information collected by Kingsview Partners may in some circumstances be disclosed to third parties, such as agents, affiliates, service providers and others without your specific consent. In some cases, we may need your direct authorization before sharing that information. Residents have the right to access, to correct and, in some states, to delete (if incorrect) the information collected about them, except information that relates to a claim or to a civil or criminal proceeding. If you submit a request to exercise these rights you have the right to a response within 30 days. We may refuse your request where we believe the information is correct, required to fulfill a legal obligation, necessary to protect our legal interests, or as otherwise required or permitted by law. If we refuse your request, you may have the right to file a statement regarding what you believe to be accurate and fair information and why you disagree with our refusal. If you are refused coverage or if your application is postponed, you may also have the right to receive the specific reason in writing. To exercise your rights or if you wish to have a more detailed explanation of our information practices required by your state, please submit a written request to the following address Kingsview Partners, 509 SE 7th St, Floor 2, Grants Pass, OR 97527 or call 1-800-877-1555.
